Kia ora koutou katoa and welcome to Week 2.

What a great day the Calf, Lamb and Chicken day was! A huge thank you go to the organising committee - so much work went into the day and making it run smoothly. We could not have done it without your support and effort. Also I must thank the sponsors, there is an official list to make sure we have not left anyone off but the feedback was that our local businesses were outstanding, making great contributions. Thank you everyone for your support. Final thanks go to you all for the work with our children, raising, calves, lambs and chickens, creating cakes, running stalls and coming on the day to support the event and take part. 'Ma te whanau, te tamaiti e puawai. By the whole community the child will blossom'.

I had an excellent week last week with the opportunity to celebrate with the Young enterprise Scheme (YES) participants. These are the students, guided and supported by Mrs Richardson who have brought the Coastal Canteen to life this year. The team went to the award dinner on Thursday night and I am proud to report that they scooped up two prizes. The first was a runner up to the Oral Presentation Award sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. This was awarded for an excellent presentation and explanation of the business idea. The main prize for us was the Rangatahi Business Award sponsored by office furniture first. The prize went to a successful business with more than 50% Maori working on the team. Congratulations to the team and to Mrs Richardson for the effort and representing us, as well as feeding us. A winning combination in my books!

Our next major community event is the Hangi day - this is on the 15th November. Watch out for the notices in the newsletter. We hope to be able to see you on the night (from 6pm)

Please ensure you have returned an RSVP notice as this will help us with the catering.
